

Recapture vs Recapture vs Non-Recapture

Table of Contents

- I. Vocabulary
 - A. § 1231
 - B. §1245
 - C. §1250Notes:
 - D. Recapture
- II. The History of §1231
 - “The Story of the Evil Senator”
- III. §1231
 - A. Net §1231 Losses are Ordinary Losses
 - B. Net Gain
 - C. “Net §1231 transactions”
 - D. Five-Year Look Back
- IV. Recapture (under §1245 & §1250)
 - A. “Recapture” is ordinary income
 - B. Recapture is not offset by §1231 losses
 - C. Each asset must be evaluated separately
 - D. Recapture not reported on installment basis
- V. §1245
 - A. What is §1245 property?
 - B. §1245 Depreciation Recapture
 - C. §1245 recapture applies in a few places you might not expect
- VI. §1250
 - A. What is §1250 property
 - B. Only “excess” depreciation recaptured
 - C. §1250 is harsher for C-corporations
 - D. Converting §1250 to §1245 property
- VII. Introduction to Form 4797
 - A. Page one (Transactions without recapture)

- B. Page Two is All Recapture!
How many kinds of recapture do you see? (Seven!)
- VIII. §179 Recapture
 - A. Predominantly Business Use
 - B. Calculating §179 recapture
 - C. §179 Recapture reported on “Originating Form”
 - D. §179 recapture restores basis
- IX. Listed Property Recapture
 - A. What is listed property?
 - B. Calculating listed property recapture
 - C. Recapture reported on originating form
 - D. Assets never return to accelerated method
 - E. Straight-line on listed assets, does not effect other assets of the same class life
 - F. Listed property recapture restores basis
 - G. Recapture for “Leased Listed Property”
- X. §1250 Unrecapture
 - A. 25% Unrecapture of ALL depreciation, even straight-line
 - B. Unrecapture only applies to property held more than 12 months
 - C. “Unrecapture” really is NOT “Recapture”
 - D. Unrecapture and Installment Reporting
- XI. Gains Subject to Multiple Provisions of §1231 and §1250
- XII. §1231 Five-Year Look Back Recapture
- XIII. Recapture and Like-Kind Exchanges
 - A. Like-kind exchanges do not trigger recapture
 - B. If any gain is recognized, recapture is first
 - C. Recapture potential is transferred to the new asset
 - D. Three Unique Traps
- XIV. Conversion of Business Assets to Personal Use
- XV. Adjustments made to basis due to debt relief.
- XVI. Gifting of §1231 assets
- XVII. Donations to Charity
- XVIII. Death of a taxpayer